My thoughts and prayers remain with you all. I have so many memories of Brian. He was such a good person and could make me laught like no other. I know he suffered for so long and he is resting with the Lord now. I know it has to be hard to go on without him, but thats what he would want you all to do. Remember all the good he brought into your lives and cherish the memories. Help his kids remember him and what a loving person he was. God bless you all. R.I.P. Brian

Baby I know your in a better place but I can't tell you how much my heart hurts not having you here with me! I miss you so much. I love you and I am so glad we got the chance to live together and become as close as we did. I will cherish every memory of you and I forever. Jeff and I are doing well and we talk abut you everyday! He misses you so much. You have touched his life more then you will ever know. Just know that we are so much closer! Since this I have begun to change my life and look at things different and not take life for granted! THANK YOU BABY!! I will always look after your children and make sure they have what they need. Chris was such a big boy coming here and helping mom and dad thru all this and I gave him your things as I know you would have wanted that. Please know that you were my heart and soul and I loved you very much!!!! You will forever remain in my heart! I LOVE YOU BABY.. Your Favorite Sister, ~Andrea~

It's hard to imagine not seeing you again! However I know your finally at peace. Something I had been praying for the longest time for you. I know you are walking with God today and that you are finally happy! I miss you so much!! No one will ever know the impact you had on my life and all the times we shared will stay in my heart forever. You are truly a special angel! I love you!

Our precious son, Brian. We love and are missing you so much. While here on earth, you suffered so much and your mind raced so much and had been unhappy for so long. You are at home with the Lord and have a new body. We wouldn't bring you back for anything. We have so many wonderful memories of you that we will cherish forever. You always tried to help others in so many ways. You were such a wonderful friend to so many. You had such a big heart. We will see you again soon. Our hearts just ache so much!

What a shock to find this out on New Years Eve.. Brian and I knew each other through Jr High and High School.. We were also in Boy Scout Troop 321 together..We always had fun whereever we went..I send my sincerest condolences during this trying time. Best wishes to his family parents and loved ones and friends.

wow, I just saw this in the paper. I haven't seen Brian in years...but I still consider him a friend! He was such a nice guy! We worked together years ago at Hydrologic. He was a fun loving guy, always laughing, having a good time. I only hope he went out the same way. Bless him & his family. May God help the family find peace and understanding. You were too young to go, Brian.

My condolences to Brians family.
Brian and I hung out a lot in our younger years and it was always a blast. I remember we would crack jokes all day and laugh our heads off. He was always fun to hang around. I didn't get to see him much after graduation but when I would run into him I was always greeted with a warm smile and hug. He will be greatly missed.
