Ms. Lawrence was such an amazing and kind soul. She opened her door to me and hugged me, told me welcome. She was so sweet and caring. She always told me to keep a smile on my pretty face and just had a way to make you smile even when you didn't want to. She is truly going to be missed and is forever loved by everyone she's ever met!

When the family lived in Gulfport, I loved to play with all my cousins in the backyard at Aunt Peggy's house. I always thought that Aunt Peggy was so neat for providing her children with such awesome toys and play things. Of course, one of the things I remember about Easter, as a child, was Aunt Peggy making sugar Easter eggs. There was a small hole in one end of the egg where you could peak in and see Easter bunnies and flowers etc. Aunt Peggy loved her home in Frankfort. I think her backyard, that was full of various flower gardens, was one of her favorite places.
I'm so very thankful for those happy childhood memories.
