

Clayton Farmer

October 14, 1941 - December 23, 2020

Frankfort – Clayton Norman Farmer passed away December 23, 2020. A private Celebration of Life included immediate family members.

Mr. Farmer was born in Danville, Kentucky on October 14, 1941, to the late Walter and Carrie Farmer. He graduated from Fern Creek High School and the University of Kentucky College of Architecture. Mr. Farmer worked as a registered architect for nearly 60 years, including a term as Commissioner of Facilities for Kentucky. Notable works during that time include the Kentucky Horse Park and the restoration of the Kentucky Governor's Mansion. Notable works from his architectural practice include the Bengals practice stadium in Georgetown, the Carrick House in Lexington, and various projects at the University of Virginia.

Mr. Farmer is survived by his wife Pamela, his children Honor Barker (David), Lincoln Farmer (Donna), Nicholas Farmer, and Austin Farmer. He is also survived by his grandchildren Adam Barker (Meg), Jacobe Farmer (Erica), Alyssa Barker, and Clayton Farmer, as well as his great grandchildren Juniper Barker, Kane Farmer, and Wilder Barker. In addition to his parents Mr. Farmer was preceded in death by his son Adam Farmer.

In lieu of flowers, expressions of sympathy may be made to South Frankfort Presbyterian Church.

Clayton Farmer 1941-2020. Darling Clayton, we are so glad we were in your dash.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home and Crematory.

Comments

“ Honor- so sorry to hear about your dad passing away during the Christmas season and this pandemic you can be assured that I will be very much in prayer for you and all your family your friend Bruce wyne the son of tot "grammy"stice the brother of sherry demaree and the uncle of Maggie demaree perry

Bruce wyne - January 26, 2021 at 10:31 PM