In October of 2014, my husband and I began to play in a legion game with “TC” called Iron Force. Our friendship and love of the game all grew together and we enjoyed our times with the tank master. We never had the opportunity to meet face to face, but we kept up and chatted on facebook. My husband talked to him on the phone a few times and always made mention of how cool Terry was. He was always encouraging us and making sure that we knew he was there for us. My heart sank when I saw the post from his sweet daughter about his passing. Not TC, and the tears flowed. We cherished you Terry Clancy and even though we weren’t the typical friends, we sure loved you! Go rest high on that mountain tank daddy. I bet the view is amazing!
