I'm so sorry that I can't be there to share my condolences and memories in person with the Clancy family. Please know that I am so sorry. I have such good memories of spending time at your home when we lived off of Green Wilson! Angie, I looked for you on FB to send a more personal message but can't find you. Feel free to get in touch with me any time. With love, Ann-Hilary (Hanly) Heston

My best friend, confident and brother. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the deep friendship over the last three decades but especially the last ten years. You always treated me like a brother and you were such a decent human being to me. I am a better person because of this. I am sure there are many many more whom you have mentored to over the years who feel the same way I . I will miss you sorely, but treasure becoming a important part of your inner circle of family and friends. That I will treasure always. I will miss the chicken and pork chop dinners with you and your lovely wife Amy. I will miss you coming to my house for coffee. Good bye my friend and may The almighty God rest your soul till we meet again. Always your friend Brooke!

Since we connected, Terry alway treated me as the sister he never had. Terry always made me feel like part of his life and had my back. I loved having another brother.

In October of 2014, my husband and I began to play in a legion game with “TC” called Iron Force. Our friendship and love of the game all grew together and we enjoyed our times with the tank master. We never had the opportunity to meet face to face, but we kept up and chatted on facebook. My husband talked to him on the phone a few times and always made mention of how cool Terry was. He was always encouraging us and making sure that we knew he was there for us. My heart sank when I saw the post from his sweet daughter about his passing. Not TC, and the tears flowed. We cherished you Terry Clancy and even though we weren’t the typical friends, we sure loved you! Go rest high on that mountain tank daddy. I bet the view is amazing!
