“ Mary, Lisa, Paula, Teresa and all the rest...I loved your mother so much. She was a very special lady, always with a grin. That picture is so "her." I will keep you all in my prayers. I would be there today, but we are in session at the legislature and I can't leave. Know that I will be thinking of you all. I know how hard it is to lose your mom, so I'm available to be an ear for listening any time. Love you all. Kim Clark Hall

“ Shirley Fuller..
Oh my, I shared so many memories with my sweet aunt. As a child, I grew up in my grandparents home and she was more my sister than my aunt. She was very protective of her nice clothes, because in those days they were hard to come by. I would catch her gone and get in her closet to try on her pretty clothes. She always knew I had been in there because she kept things in a particular place, and I never got that figured out.. she was the type of person who would look good in a flour sack. My funniest and fondest memory is of the two of us catching the outdoor outhouse on fire. Irene was in high school and decided she would sneak a smoke before grandpa got home. We both went and I was the lookout and was supposed to tell her when I saw him coming around the curve. When I did, I yelled “He’s coming...he’s coming”. Irene got excited and threw her cigarette in the hole and it caught some paper on fire . It’s hilarious now, but we were scared to death at the time. More scared of what grandpa would do. Needless to say, we survived . Rest In Peace, I will miss you and always love you. My thoughts and prayers are with Elwood, Teresa, Mary Lou, and Paula Jean. You had one of the best!

“ Filled with lots of great memories about Aunt Irene and Uncle Elwood. Fortunately no one can take away the wonderful memories. I pray that some day your grief will be replaced by the memories you all have as well. Hang on to those and continue to make more for the next generation to hang on to. Know that you are all loved and that Aunt Irene is with family and friends and smiling knowing that you are also supported by friends and family as well. Please give Uncle Elwood an extra hug for me.

“ I will always love and remember this beautiful woman. Many fond memories I have carried from the early days of my childhood when we visited her and Uncle Elwood's home. And oh, to "gather round" and hear Aunt Irene, Aunt Martha, Aunt Effie, and Shirley Ann singing Gospel Songs, was like Heaven on earth to me. Well known in Lexington as the "Revival Tabernacle Four." Aunt Irene, you get to sing before the Great God Almighty now. Lift up your voice and sing, it sounded so beautiful when I was a young girl, it will be even more so in His Presence.

Uncle Elwood, Paula, Mary, and Teresa: My heartfelt condolences to all of you. This truly broke my heart to hear this. She was such a wonderful woman with a beautiful soul, and an infectious smile. She could light up the room the moment she walked in. She was always a joy to be around, above all, she knew how to love her family and friends. May God give all of us comfort and peace in our hearts for the loss of this dear family member. She will be forever missed.
