“ Dear Jenny, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and all of Phillip's family,

I was out of town and could not attend the funeral but my heart and prayers were with you all. Jenny, you and Phillip were such wonderful friends growing up. In those days we never thought about getting old and death. Those days seemed much easier and happier to live. Please know that I'm asking God to bless you all with strength and peace that only He can give. Much love, Kim Tillett

“ Richard Wilson trucking had the pleasure of meeting Phillip a short time ago thru a mutual friend Janet Hulett later became my lady. A month ago we went to Florida. Our vehicle broke down on our return home in Georgia. We were stuck. No rentals available no parts to repair ours. Phillip heard of our dilemma and dropped everything and drove 12 yrs to bring us home. He wouldn't accept payment. He was just glad to help. As we shook hands and he drove away. I new why Janet called him a friend. Now I new I had a friend on my side also. Just an honest sincere guy whiling to help. I'm sure he will be greatly missed. Sincerely Richard Wilson

“ This loss is such a shock even though I had not seen Phillip since a few years after high school. He was always such a nice guy and a real gentleman. I would see him at Winn Dixie of course when I would go and we would catch up. He had a gift for talking to anyone which made him seem more mature. Great sense of humor and he was Jenny's brother but everyone else's too - that was Phillip. I know he will be missed but am glad to see he had a large family which is such a tribute to him. He would give you the shirt off his back that was Phillip. To me he is still that guy from Elkhorn Elementary and FCHS and Jenny's brother. He is not all grown up with a family and kid and grandkids. He was way to young to be gone. My thoughts are with you all as you go through this time and hope that you know many are praying for the Lord to bring you comfort and joy in the life that he led. I am sure you don't need me to tell you that he was a wonderful person and I was truly blessed to know him. Kelly Tillett Feifer
