“ Hello, Laurie. Thank you for the well written obituary for brother, Richard. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I look forward to seeing you in September, and maybe sooner if it works out. It is a difficult path you are now on...let it be....work through it....and there are times you will wonder if life is worth living. It is; you have family and friends and co-workers who care about you....and often will be uneasy as they are all mortal, too. As my Jack used to say, "We won't get out of this life alive!" Then he would chuckle. . . I urge you to talk about Richard, encourage those around you to speak of him....for me, that has been the most wonderful thing. Understand you may feel much differently than I, but know that I care and am happy to think of you telling me stories and reviewing special times with Richard...Thank you for loving my brother and being the love his life! Affectionately yours, Julie Haggin Bonkowski

“ Richard was my absolute favorite clerk at both Keeneland and the Red Mile. He was also one of the kindest people I've ever known. We shared a West Virginia connection that provided us with several memories and a lot of laughs. I will miss him terribly and offer my heartfelt condolences to Laurie and his family.
