“ I did not know him very long but I new that I loved him as soon as I met him with grace. He was so sweet and he loved me like I was his actual sister. I know he would be so proud of me now and who I have yet to become. I love you so much Jacob riddle and I hope you rest easy now.

“ He is the only toddler I know who could potty on a twig and turn it into a giant 30 ft tall Oak in just a matter of weeks. Never forget that or how excited he was to have a baby sister or how intrigued my 2 little ones were when he was born. My heart breaks for my sister and his sister and Daddy. God really did want you with him Jaycobb and so did my mommy. Rest in peace you are home

“ I wasn't a confident kid growing up. Jacob instilled a confidence in me that I would have never had had I not grown up with him. Its a testimony to the kind of person he was that he could touch my life with the few times a year that I saw him.
