“ Scott I know how much this hurts. I pray you find comfort in your memories of great times with your dad. I didn't know him, but I can say he certainly raised a fine son!
See you soon,

“ May God's comfort you during this time. Through his Word he assures us that he will replace death with life, sickness with perfect health and suffering with joy. He yearns to bring back many who have fallen asleep in death, to see them live again right here on earth under the best of conditions.
