“ I remember the first day I met Kasie's forever love! You were both at school down at Auburn. I believe my first words were prove to me you are worthy of her love and we shall see if you are good enough for her because "I loved her first!" Turns out Aaron you were more than good for her. You brought out her true smile the one I strived daily as one of her best friends to keep on her face for 4 years in undergrad. You were a great soul and now I just ask one thing is just that you watch over her daily and help her to continue to feel your love daily even if it is not in person. Build a beautiful home with a zoo in the sky and wait for her please. I will help take care of her down here. Thank you for being so loving and accepting of my craziness as well. Until we meet again my friend!

“ Oh my goodness, Melinda and family, I just learned of Aaron's passing. I am so shocked and heartbroken for you all. I always thought the world of Aaron and will never forget how proud my best friend, his grandmother Betty, was of him. Prayers for your family.
