

Alan Jesus Prado-Rodriguez

March 28, 1999 - June 1, 2019

Frankfort – Alan Jesus Prado-Rodriguez, age 20, passed away at home on Saturday, June 1, 2019. Services will be held at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home on Wednesday, June 5, 2019, at 2:00 p.m. with Father Charles Howell officiating. Burial will follow at Sunset Memorial Gardens, with Moritz Moskovitz conducting graveside services. Visitation will be held at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home from 11:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. service time on Wednesday.

Born March 28, 1999, in Mexico City, Alan was a 2017 graduate of Franklin County High School. With a passion for music, he enjoyed playing the guitar. In his spare time, he especially loved time spent lifting at the gym and playing play station. Blessed with an athletic talent, Alan also enjoyed playing soccer and football during school.

He is survived by his parents, Jesus Prado-Curiel and Maria Guadalupe Rodriguez Jacinto; siblings, Efren Alejandro “Alex” Prado-Rodriguez (fiancé, Abby Smith) and Isaac Edgar Prado; and special uncle, Arturo Rodriguez. He was also blessed with a host of loving aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Serving as pallbearers will be Efren Alejandro “Alex” Prado-Rodriguez, Isaac Edgar Prado; Charles Michael Stone, Charles Thomas Stone, Charles Andrew Stone, and Charles “Butch” Arthur Jacobs. Honorary pallbearers will be Glenn Bailey, Anthony Valentine, Deron Jackson, Carson Chancellor, and Hunter Moffett.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

“ This young man played football for me. He was a tough, hard working, respectful young man, just like his brothers. He was a loyal friend to many, and we never any trouble as a student. I will remember his toughness during competition, popping his shoulder back into place with no hesitation to compete a game in middle School vs Shelby county! I pray for faith, comfort and understanding for the family during this tough time.
