“ *Edna, Ann, Troy and Amy,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of Albert, a wonderful husband, father and dear friend. Customers come and go but friends stay in your hearts forever. He was always a friend of mine and I will surely miss him. Take care and comfort each other during this time.*

“ In 1975 I was new to Frankfort, lonely, scared, and unemployed at the age of 26. Al gave me a job, pep talks when needed, lots of advice, and helped me turn my life around. There is not enough space here to list all the gracious things he did for me, or for others. Al was one of those rare individuals who routinely, quietly, and unsolicited, jumped in to help people at their time of need. My life was, and is better for having known him.

My prayers and love to his family.

“ *Dear Edna,
I have not seen you for 70 years but I have thought of you often over the years. I am sorry for your loss, but knew of your marriage from "Aunt Ella". My sister saw the article about Albert so I thought I would extend my thoughts and prayers to you and your family at this time of your loss.
You were a good friend when we were children and I wanted you to know that I did not forget you.
