“ He was my favorite Dr/surgeon from the time I was 16 till he left his practice to do research.
I have many stories I could share about him. I'll share my story about my first surgery -16 and scared to death I was gonna die. As they wheeled me into the operating room, I turned my head to the right and saw a plaque in honor of Allen E Grimes. I went in to surgery feeling I was in good hands. When I came in to have my stitches removed, I told him about the plaque and how I knew I would be fine because any Dr. who had a plaque on a hospital wall had to be good ... you know him and that chuckle of his. He said, that's a plaque in honor of my dad. He was glad it gave me comfort. He was a great man. One of the best. Always on time, always willing to listen and explain, always willing to get me booked in to surgery quickly and always ready with a smile or a chuckle. I surely wish I'd known he had passed, I most certainly would've come to pay my respects. For I held him in highest regards. Rest in peace, my friend.
