“ Aunt Alma was one of the most loving, giving humans that ever lived. When we moved to Kentucky after WW II, we lived in one side of the duplex on Gayle Street and she was such a wonderful neighbor and Aunt. Her husband and my father were brother. I have such loving memories watching my parents play cards and having such a good time together. Mike was the little brother that I never had, She is in a better place, not in pain or suffering and is will Uncle Wallace.
