“ I'll never forget living next to Andy and Betty for several years on Deerland Drive. He was a "pistol". Never forget the night the dump truck caught on fire between our houses. And Glen what a resemblance seeing Andy in his younger years. Only met Leisa a few times. So sorry for your loss.

“ *Mr. Saylor You were a big influence in my life. The first man to take me night bass fishing, as well as many other fishing adventures. You took Glen and I to motocross races Bluegrass music events. You let Glen come to Arkansas then we rode the bus back to Kentucky an adventure I still talk about today. All the stories you told me. You have been with me my whole life it seems. You are one of the people I admire and help develop me into the man I am today.

“ I met Mr Saylor many years ago and was able to visit several times and talk CB radios. I'll always remember him as a fine man who took time to teach a kid about things he knew. Our prayers go to his wife and his children. Glen, I am truly sorry for your loss. God bless.
