“ To both sons of Mrs. Clark: I was a neighbor of your grandmother Mrs. Barlow for 18 years. I still live in the house next door. I remember your mother coming to visit Mrs. Barlow. She was a very sweet person and Mrs. Barlow loved her very much. I learned of her death at work today while talking to Joyce Barlow in the Dept. of Revenue. She said Mrs. Clark trained her 25 years ago. I had asked if she was kin to Mrs. Barlow and she said no but when we talked she did know Mrs. Clark.

I send you love and prayers from my two daughters and me.
