“ I have fond memories of Annette and so do my boys. She was their Sunday School teacher at LGC back in the early 90's. I have many memories during my childhood and later as an adult. One of my fondest memories is also at LGC when she would stand, turn her face to the wall and simply and quietly worship the Lord, it was beautiful! Dear sweet lady, your earthly journey has come to an end but oh my what a heavenly journey you're on now. Until we meet again. <3

“ Aunt Annette was such a powerful little woman. I will never forget the times stopping by her house after work when she lived in Bellpoint, she would call saying that she just wanted to talk or that she needed cat treats. She got me thru some rough times when my mom and dad were passing away. She would always say ,Honey God hears you, he will answer your prayers. I know she has gone to her new home. God has wrapped his arms around her to bring her home to Heaven. I will miss you and one day we'll all meet in Heaven.

“ Aunt Annette was such a blessing to me. Living so far away from my home; she reminded me so much of my own family. She was an encourager, and a prayer warrior that I could call on anytime for anything. We shared a love of gospel music and would always say "What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see". No doubt she is rejoicing! I will miss her hugs and the "I love you's" until we meet in Heaven.

“ I'm so happy for Annette to have finally made to heaven to be reunited with her brother Sonny and wife Libby, because that's all she ever talked about when we would visit with her. When she would come dinners at Sonnys and Libbys house , they would tell us stories of their childhood and her favorite story to tell was of when her and Marvin drove to Camp Lejeune to visit Sonny. Also, stories of her and Libbys shopping adventures and they would stay up late eating donuts and drinking Pepsi and talking about the Bible. I will miss Annette and her love of animals. Heaven has received an angel.
