Was always one of the most caring and smiling guys on the planet. Sing a song for the Big Guy Arnold, and maybe that will subdue some of this hate in the world today.

*God Bless and you will be missed greatly.
Best wishes and regards to Odessa and all the great kidz they have.*

“Arnold and I were just cousins who loved to play music. I had the privilege of playing that music with him a number of times, but I wished there had been more, but because I lived out of state, that could never have happened, but I sure enjoyed the times we did!" He loved my Dad George W. Clark like a brother, even tho my Day was his Uncle. That didn't matter to him, he just loved my Dad. I'll miss and remember him always and my prayers go out to Odessa and family, for he is at rest and the family must go on!" C.Hughes Clark

Arnold always headlined our Port of Big Eddy Fall Festivals and I always enjoyed making up wild tales about him for our Large Edward News.
