“ Sorry I could not be there in person, but I was definately there in heart. I know you all are celebrating Arvenia's release from pain and suffering. Right now it is painful to think you will not see her again on earth, but to think of her walking around, laughing and singing those old songs she loved so well eases a lot of the pain. I pray you will find comfort as you see her in her new life. Love you guys. ”

“ A friend told me once that something isn't lost if you know where it is. We know Arvenia is in heaven walking with Jesus on those streets of gold. While our hearts ache at the loss, we rejoice in her homecoming. God bless you all through this difficult time. Much love and prayers. Please let us know if we can do anything. Love, Mike and Brenda

“ I met Arvenia when she and my mom were in the hospital at the same time. Mom had fractured her hip. The following few years, Mom gradually went down hill. She passed a little over a year ago. No matter how long our loved ones are with us, the time when they depart this world is a difficult time for us. Your family is in our hearts at this time.

“ I just want you to know that I am praying for God to comfort you as only He can. Your Mom is now in the presence of the Lord and I know she is so happy. You all will see her again and until that day comes, she will be with all of her family and friends that have already gone to Heaven. Blessed assurance... the wonderful promise of eternal life... hugs...
