“ Ben cared about people. He was a loyal and protective friend, and always thought about the needs of others more than his own. We are so sad to hear of Ben's passing, but we know that he surely is in heaven and we'll see him again one day.

As an example of Ben's kindness, in 2013 he saved my husband Walter's life by calling 911 after finding him viciously assaulted. Had it not been for Ben's quick thinking and checking on his friend, Walter would not be with us today.

I was in Wal-Mart today, and happened to see Ben's picture on the Veterans wall, wearing his Marine dress uniform. I asked the lady at customer service if she knew where Ben is, and she told me. We are so very sorry we lost touch with our friend Ben. If we had been getting the paper, we would have known to come to his memorial service. My condolences and heartfelt sympathy to his Mother and all the family. Ben was truly a good man and the Malena family will always remember him, he has a place in our hearts.

“ So sad to hear this news, Ben and I go way back. We used to trade record albums and that was big for him because he cherished his records lol. We did some parties together he was a great guy and will be missed. R.I.P. my friend.

“ Ben was one of my closest and dearest elementary school friends. We met at Rosenwald School One of my best memories of Ben was the sharing of his mom's delicious sweet potato pie she would send with his lunch. Rest In Peace old friend.
