“ Mr. Robinson was always kind to me on those days when I couldn't make it in to make my payment. He was understanding, considerate and never harsh. I am sure you will miss him. I didn't know him except through telephone communications but it was obvious that he was a wonderful, loving man. May God comfort you all.

He was a true friend and would do all he could to help out anyone. No one was a stranger to him. He helped me thru some hard times after having my knee surgery . i really appreciate everything he has done for me. he didnt want to except any thing in return but i made him take it. and he made sure that i was taken care of and made sure i never went without. My friend i know you are in Heaven and i hope we will meet again someday.
Ill not say Good Bye just so long till we meet again.
May the Lord take care of you and bless you my friend.... John
