“ Herald....Sorry to hear about Betty. I remember back in Bowling Green when I first met you. I have always remember when you enlisted in Service Company 149th Inf in 1948. Remember when you courted Betty and talked her into Marring you. I was proud when you left BG and went to work with the KyNG. Enjoyed seeing you in Frankfort. I will NEVER forget the time I flew my little air craft to see you. No radio or any thing in the ole Taylor Craft, not even a starter. What fun. I don't think I will ever forget you & Betty. Know you have a wonderful family,wish I knew them. Please Keep in touch.

“ She NEVER failed. When I was across the street at my first 2nd home, She never failed to discipline me when I needed it. She never failed to heal me when I was hurt. She never failed to share her love whether I deserved it or not. She never failed to share the whole Canon family and/or household. Besides me being a product of my own parents, I am also who I am because of Betty. Prayers to and for you guys.
