“ I knew Bob when I worked at the Tower, about 10 years ago. I knew him to be a very intelligent, and very kind man. He helped me out many times with tech issues, as I am not much of a techie. He was so courageous after his stroke. I admired him greatly for his personal strength. He even took me riding, one time, during lunch. It was a great treat for me. Bob will definitely be missed. He was a fine, generous gentleman. My prayers and thoughts are with you, his family.
