“ Renay,

My deepest sympathy to you and your family. There are no words to express the loss of a child. Please know that if you need to chat with an outside person not in the situation you can call me. I saw all of the posts this morning and knew right away that I should send you my warmest thoughts and prayers during your time of trials.

Please know that there are many thinking of you and your family.

May God keep you in peace and always shine His light where you should go.
