“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Stanley friends and family during this difficult time. My condolences go out to with each and everyone of you. Sweet, sweet Gabbie.... I love you. I wish I could take yours, Kash's, his mother, and everyone else's pain away. I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Brandon and his family, but I do know you, sweet girl. I saw through pictures and posts, your amazing connection and love for each other. How your eyes lit up, just looking at him. I strive to find that love one day. Just know, he's always with you. That breeze upon your cheek, the warm ray of sunshine that hits you just at the right time, that star that seems to follow you, wherever you go. And you have a piece of him still here, with little Kash. He loved you as well, with every part of his being, from what I could see. And he still does. With time, you'll see he's still by your side, and watching over all of you. Much love to you. I'm here if you need anything.
