Even though they were Marshall was a little few years older than I was me and him was good friends the best of friends there wasn't anything that I wouldn't do for him or did he wouldn't do for me it just I'm glad that he didn't have a debilitating disease that he had to suffer a long time with and everything belong and drawn out but I just can't get myself to believe that he's not just took off and maybe on vacation somewhere and he'll be back or he's in school somewhere and when he gets out I see him again or whatever it's I've not got my mind wrapped around it totally yet but hey it's like a friend and and like a dollar to me sometimes too I'll never forget him or his family thank you

“ I only knew Dee threw my family and he took my boyfriend under his wing and really was a very unique person always happy and always made us smile. I am very grateful to have gotten to meet Dee and spend what little time I spent around him. He was such a giving person he gave my boyfriend Josh a truck just because he said that my boyfriend josh needed a good truck and he wanted him to have it.
