“ Cindy, Kim, and Donnie - We are all so sorry for your loss. Carol was a special person who I was proud to have grown up with. I remember to this day things that I learned from her...like the meticulous detail that she would concentrate on in getting a job done, or house cleaned. And I remember the love that she always had and showed for her family. You are all in our prayers. Dawn

“ I had the honor to assist Mrs. Carol Saufley through the grieving process in the loss of her husband MG Zack Saufley. It was through this experience I understood the depth of her love for MG Saufley and was amazed at the unconditional love, commitment, compassion, and selflessness she has towards her husband, family and friends. Words cannot effectively describe how wonderful of a woman she was, nor the love she had for others.

Carol lived life to its fullest and her accumulated gestures of care and compassion positively transformed the lives of her family, friends and many others. Carol's family was her greatest treasure on earth and she highly valued her relationship with friends who enriched her life.

She is a woman of Faith who relied heavily upon her relationship with Jesus Christ to help her deal with life's challenges. God enabled Carol to live life with joy and peace even through difficulties. She understood the incredible healing power in forgiveness and how important it is not to hold grudges against others.

She was a woman of Hope and understood that Hope is actually something we create. It's not something that magically appears from an outside source. We each have within us the capacity to generate hope. It's critical that we be absolutely intentional about nurturing hope in our lives and the lives of our children.

Carol Faced adversity head on and lived as the Japanese Proverb says: "Fall seven times, stand up eight."

She understood the greatest glory in living, lies not in never failing, but in rising every time we fail." She was a very giving person, full of grace and was a tremendous help to others in need.

To Kim, Donnie and all of Carol's family, I know the pain of Carol's loss feels unbearable. Please remember that she is more alive today living in heaven than ever before. Take comfort in knowing she is dancing with the love of her life and she will never experience pain again.

Carol would want all of us to continually rely on God to help us deal with our grief and allow Him to assist us throughout life. In the Bible

it says:

For I am the Lord, your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, do not fear; I will help you. (Isaiah 41:13)

And in John it says: Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. (John 14:27) God will carry, pull and push us through our tremendous loss of Carol.

This is a story that Carol liked: One day there was a man walking down the beach and in the distance he saw an object; as he got closer he realized it was a boy picking up starfish the tide had washed in and was throwing them back into the ocean. He said boy don't you realize there are miles and miles of beach and thousands of starfish what possible difference do you think you are making by throwing these starfish back into the ocean. The boy did not say a word, bent down pick-up up a starfish and threw it into the ocean. Then the boy said Sir, I made a difference for that one.

Carol Saufley invested her life in people making a positive difference in their lives. "Carol embraced pain and burned it as fuel the journey of her life." Carol lived the saying: "You can't sit around and wait for the storm to be over. You've got to learn how to dance in the rain." Let us follow Carols lead by dancing even in the midst of life's storms while sharing the love of Jesus Christ towards one another. (LTC Allen H. Boone)

“ Carol was a beloved friend, co-worker, mother, and grandmother who lived a very free-spirited life full of vitality and vigor. Carol had an infectious smile and laughter and a true friend that would go that extra mile for anyone close to her. I will always remember her and her former co-worker Debbie for caring and loving my then infant son when he made those seldom office visits with Dad and how great she was with young children. Carol will be sorely missed, I love you and now you can be happy in heaven with your husband and other loved ones.
