“ Carol and I were great friends when we were school girls. Carol's good disposition and laughter meant much to me. Her dear parents put this country girl up for the night many times. Our last visit was about seven years ago. I did not know that she was ill but now that she is in heaven, I shall ask her to help her old friend, Rosalie who is now S. Rose Eleanor at Nazareth, KY. Blessings on her family.

“ Carol was a rare and wonderful person. She had a big heart and a big smile to go with it. She always made me feel welcome and wanted. I will so miss hearing her tell stories... and laugh. Sending love to her children, ALL of them, her grandkids and to her husband, John. We will all be a little lost without her. Hugs and prayers to all... xoxo
