“ May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together, as you celebrate a life well lived but cut short. Death to many seems to be a part of life. Our Heavenly Father (Psalm 83:18) want his children to enjoy life and live, So He made a promise to do away with death at Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.&#226;€&#157; Let God's will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth. Only God&#226;€TMS Kingdom [government]can bring peace, happiness, perfect health, and everlasting life. At these times, may you turn to God&#226;€TMS Word for comfort. “ Broke my heart to learn of Sue's passing. I left a message two weeks ago to tell her some exciting news in my life and was hoping to visit with her. I am still in shock that I won't have that chance to catch up with her. Lonnie, I am keeping you, Sharon and your grandkids in prayer. She will surely be missed. She made me laugh like no other, and I will treasure my memories and time with her.
