“ My family and I were saddened to hear the news of Carolyn's passing yet we know she is in a much better place with no more pain, no more hospitalizations and with Sophie right beside her. We appreciate Carolyn being a friend to our sister / daughter Paula Miller for so many years. We'll always remember and cherish the stories.

“ I met Carolyn about 3 years ago, from the moment I spoke with her I realized just how special she was, her courage alone was amazing she never complained, she would just smile and go on. My heart goes out to her family and all her other friends, and we all know where she is now.

“ Carolyn was a good friend and I will miss talking to her and taking her places. We met during our teaching careers. She was a wonderful teacher to her special children and a special friend to me. Her love of animals, especially her beloved Sophie, is matched by none. Her respect for people, her intelligence, and friendship will be cherished by me for many years to come.

“ Caroline was a friend of mine. No matter how ill she was, she remembered others. When my dog passed on and sent me a card with a kind note. This gesture will always stay in my heart with fond memories. Caroline was a wonderful, caring special education teacher at Bondurant Middle School. She cared greatly for all her students year after year. She has been missed in the profession.

“ I was very shocked to hear the news about Carolyn. I met her back at Eastern Ky University in a cooking class. I sat behind her (Webb-Williams) and we were friends from then on. She was in my wedding and came out here to California to visit a few times. I didn't keep in touch as much as I should have but when we did speak, we had a lot to talk about. I of fun memories of us going to Cedar Point in Sandusky Ohio and working-me in the donut shop and her at the hotel. The stories she would come back with. I also remember what a workaholic she was-she worked 2 jobs, was buying a new car and was working on her masters at school. I will always remember her and until the day I die, she will remain one of my dearest friends.
