“ I have so many wonderful memories of my dear Uncle Charlie. Too many to list here. As a child, I visited Uncle Charlie and Aunt Helen often and considered them my "second parents"..., loved them both so very much and have so many fond memories of our families spending time together. Uncle Charlie was my dad, Reid Caudill's, younger brother..they were also best friends!!! When my dad died in 1987, Uncle Charlie checked on me and called quite often to make sure I was okay. He always had a big smile on his face and his personality was bigger than life!!! One of the finest people I have ever had the priviledge to know..,loved him dearly. Rest in peace Uncle Charlie...give my dad and my brother Michael a big hug!!! I'd give anything to see that wonderful reunion...Aunt Helen especially!!! Love you always..,Tootie
