“ I remember Tweety from my first days of working at Revenue. We worked together for many years. He was a great guy; always had a smile. We talked Louisville sports many times. He will be missed. Rest in peace Tweety.

Even though I knew Tweety for over 20 years, every time I saw him after retirement he would say "You don't know me!" He always had time, a smile and a story. Rest in peace my friend!

“ You know your cousins are your first friends Tweety was that. I remember as a young teen he was always the winner of a new bike year from the Convenience Store on Versailles Rd. For at least five to six years for Christmas. As a young adult he was always the male rider when we went to Versailles to party at TC's Shack . Tweety loved to dance just as much as he loved the Louisville Cardinals.
Cuz tell our family in heaven I miss and love them all. I know there's a lot of rejoicing happening you'll keep watching over us.RIH
