“ I have known Cheryl all my life. We went all the way thru school together beginning at Bridgeport. She was my first girl friend in the first grade! I never will forget the time we were on the play ground and our teacher let us go back on the trails in the woods. When were walking out, Cheryl fell into the little creek and was soaked! I felt terrible. I remember had to call her mom to get a fresh change of clothes. Such a beautiful, kind, gentle human being. You will be missed dearly.
