“ My precious son I will never be the same again. There is not enough words to describe how much I love you. I still think you're going to walk through the door or call me like you always did. You are my life! I miss you and I am so sorry that you left us. But I know I will see you again. Love you always, MOM

“ *Dear Kennita, Kim and family,
My heartfelt sympathy go out to you in your family in this time of great sorrow. I was on the internet looking for the obituary of another friend, when I came across Chris' name, I was in total shock. I will always remember Him and Bub running around that mobile home you guys had out there on Owenton Road. I always thought of Chris as an articulate level-headed young man who endeavored to do things the right way. He will be grievously missed, and may the "God of all comfort" comfort all of you in this time of great loss. (2Cor. 1:3, 4)*

“ Kennita and all of Chris' family and friends - I am so sorry to hear of Chris' passing. Something that I heard when Daddy (Wayne Beatty) passed was that you can't lose someone when you know where they are. It gave me peace about his passing and I hope it gives you some peace as well. The whole Beatty family loves you and will be praying for you.

“ Chris was one of the best friends I could of ever asked for. Although I didn't see him as often as I would of liked in the past 10 years, there was a time when he was always there. He practically lived with Scott and I at one point. He loved us and told us every single day. He always knew that those 3 words are what everyone needs to hear. He was wise beyond his years. Chris, I'm going to think of you and smile just like I always have. I know I will see you again, and you will be right there with me to hug me and Welcome Me Home.

“ So very sorry for your family, Chris. I know they love you tremendously. Praying that they will feel God's love and find comfort and peace and I know that's what you want as well. I knew you for a very long time and you were one of the cheeriest people I ever met. I'm positive that you're cracking your fellow angels up right now. Our loss is Heaven's gain. We'll see you again someday, my friend...

“ Chris,

I miss you so much. I wish this was only just a dream. You meant so much to me and my family and your "little Princess", Cheyanne,as you always said. Thank you for everything that you have ever done for me and my family, it meant so much. I remember everyhting so vividly the night before you passed and those were ALL good memories that I will hold in my heart forever. I know you are rejoicing in heaven with my dad and Darryl. RIP, until we meet again!

“ Chris was always nice and friendly to me when I would see him at church. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. The last time I got to see him was at our children's Christmas play when he came to see Hunter who was one of the lead roles. I was so happy he was there for Hunter. We are praying for all of the family. Tammy Matte

“ Our hearts are broke, it is hard to breathe just thinking about not being able to see Chris's big smile, hear his sweet voice and feel his loving arms embrace you each time we would see each other. He had our hearts from the day he was borne. There isn't words to express how much he will be missed and we thank you Lord for placing him in our lives. Our memories of Chris will never fade, from birth to January 20, 2011.
