

Christopher Clayton Rogers

May 24, 1975 - January 13, 2021

Christopher Clayton Rogers, 45, of Frankfort, passed away on January 13, 2021. He was born May 24, 1975, in Hazard, KY. Christopher attended Hazard High School and the University of Kentucky. He was a proud electrician for the Electrical Workers Local 369 Union, Louisville, KY. His love for music was almost as big as his love for the Wildcats.

Christopher was the son of Audrey Combs Rogers and the late Leslie Harrison Rogers. In addition to his mother, he is survived by a son, Andrew Clayton Rogers, New Albany IN; a brother, Leslie Craig Rogers, Lexington; and sister and brother-in-law, Nea and Nick Rodgers, Frankfort. Additionally, he leaves behind three nephews and a niece - Gabe Harrison Rogers and Grayson James Rogers, Lexington; Harrison Scott Rodgers and Mary Clayton Rodgers, Frankfort. He was loved by nine aunts and uncles, a host of cousins and too many friends to count. In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, James Clayton and Marie Rogers; and maternal grandparents, Dan and Media Combs.

A graveside service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, January 22, 2021, at Sunset Memorial Gardens, Frankfort, KY.

In lieu of flowers, expressions of sympathy may be made to ACCESS Soup Kitchen and Men's Shelter, Frankfort, KY. <http://www.accesssoupkitchen.com>

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home & Crematory.

“ Chris and I became friends, while working for ARH and stayed in contact over the years. It is truly difficult, putting into words what he meant to me. His smile, infectious laugh, sense of humor, love for music and ability to make others feel special. It is hard to put Chris and his impact on my life into words. I am truly a better person for knowing him. Until, we meet again, my dear friend. Have my breakfast ready.

“ Audrey, I hope you remember me from the UK Center for Rural Health. My mom saw Chris' obituary and let me know about his passing. I think I only met him a couple of times but I feel terrible about your loss. I'm praying that God comforts you and your family during this trying time. — David A. Gross

“ I was introduced to Chris through my husband, Mark, 25 years ago. He had a kind heart, a contagious laugh, and a smile that lit up a room.

“ Always a smile for everyone...
The last time I saw and talked with him, he was so worried about his Dad being sick. He loved his family so much. Les was my boss when Chris was born.
So sorry for this terrible loss.
