“ I'm very sorry that I missed the service. I was out of the country on spring break with my son and 150 people from WHHS band and choir. I didn't find anyone in the phone book to send a card. I hope everyone is doing ok. Lois

“ Joyce,

I am so sorry to hear about Aunt Clara Mae. No one told me about her. I will continue to pray for you and your family. I know how tough it can be at a time like this. The lose of a parent is a hard thing to go through but we know that Aunt Clara Mae is with the Lord now and I can just imagine all the whole Brown family that has gone on before are having a big reunion. One day we will have that reunion with them when God calls us home.

*Love ya,
