

Clarence John Chapman

November 11, 1946 - March 7, 2023

Clarence John Chapman, 76, passed away March 7th 2023. No services will be held.

John was born in Lodi, Ohio on November 11, 1946, to the late parents Clarence Melvin Chapman and Clementine Virginia (Britton) Burdette. He was a machinist while he lived in Ohio and later retired from Kentucky State Government. In his spare time, he enjoyed reading and hanging out with his dog, Kimber, while working in his woodshop. Most of all, he loved his family and will be remembered for being a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and brother.

He is survived by his children Shonn (Melanie) Chapman and Robin Chapman McCoy; his grandchildren Lance, Logan, and Amber Chapman, and Lynsey McCoy; as well as his sister Sandy Holler.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his wife Mary Ann (Kish) Chapman and his siblings, Bonnie, Ginny, Clem, and Lu.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home & Crematory.

“ Johnny was cousin. We grew up in Ohio. When I moved to CT, he drove from OH to CT with me. I live near the water and we walked to the beach, while there a small whale had beached there. He was so excited to see a real whale. We had a wonderful time visiting before he flew home to OH a few days later.
