I pray that your precious memories will comfort you in your days ahead and your faith will sustain you in knowing that this isn't the end. For Clella it is the beginning of a new life, a life that you all will be a part of again one day when it is time. This isn't goodbye, it is see you later. Clella was one of my favorite things about working at EKPC and I will look forward to hearing more tales and stories one day in Heaven.*

“ Lynn, Jason, Nicole, Larry, Ryan and Kennedy,
I am so very sorry for the loss of your wonderful Clella. I pray that the memories you have will hold you up through this hard time and the faith you have will get you through this life without him, knowing that you will see him again in our wonderful New Earth that our heavenly father is going to give us. I can honestly say I have not laughed near as much here at work since he retired. He made my coming to work so enjoyable and I still and will continue to tell my "Clella Stories" . He talked about each and every one you all the time and he loved you all big as the sky!!!
