“ Hi Uncle Clint. It's Mel, you know "Napkins", the Nick name you gave me, when I was 10 years old. We were with the entire family celebrating the beginning of summer. This was an annual event each year. I received this nickname from you, because I was using so many napkins, you said I must be eating them. Then there was the time you and Uncle George taught me how to "gap spark plugs" in your basement. So many wonderful memories you have shared with me! I will always treasure those memories, and the fact that you are my Uncle. We will miss you so, but I know you are so happy to be reunited with Aunt Margie and Clint Jr. Tell all of the family I love them, and please give my Mom and my boys (Jeff and Todd) a hug for me. God bless you, Uncle Clint. Hugs, prayers, peace and love to your family. Love, Melodie and George
