“ I am so sad to hear of Clyde's passing. He was great to work with, and I always valued his expertise and good humor. One of a kind.

“ We are deeply saddened to hear of Clyde's passing. We only learned of it after his services. We wish we could have been there. Clyde remodeled practically every room in our house over the past 34+ years and did his work with such honesty and integrity. If we needed something done, we would wait until he was able to fit us in to his busy schedule. We felt like he was practically a member of our family. We left him a key to do things when we weren't home and trusted his work implicitly. After learning of his passing, I went from room to room just to sit and ponder how much joy we have derived from all of the work he, Chuck, and Bill (and others too) did to our home. I often told him that he was the one person in Frankfort that was more particular than me about the quality of the work. We have so many memories.... Once I called him because I couldn't remember the exact color he used on the woodwork. He laughed, knew exactly what it was, and said he'd have someone pick up a gallon of what we needed, set it on our back porch, and add it to our bill. He took such pride in his work and you never had to wonder if it was done right. If he did it, it was done with perfection in mind. We enjoyed just chatting with him as he came to look at yet another project we wanted done. He was truly one in a million. Please accept our condolences. He will always be remembered fondly.

“ I knew Clyde for some 35 years. He and his crews came to my house many, many times to paint, repair, replace and literally maintain all the needs of my house inside and out. He was a kind and generous man who helped so many people. One of the kindest thing he did for me was to bury my dog after I had to put him down. Clyde always said the good lord put him on this earth to help people. He was a perfectionist and it showed in his work. I could always trust whatever he did to be right. Some of the best times were just talking. He liked to talk and I enjoyed every minute. I talked with him a few days before he passed and he was his usual accepting self of whatever the Lord wanted for him, it was okay with him. I already miss him terribly. He loved his family so very much; i send my deepest sympathy to them.

“ Clyde was such a lovely person. His team performed work on my house several times, and he was imminently trustworthy and forthright, which was a godsend to me in some difficult and stressful times. My heartfelt condolences to his family and dear friends.
