“ Connie you and I were cousins for many years before I met you, my daughter and I came to Frankfort and met you and Jessica for the first time, I could see what a great caring person you was by the way you took care of your daughter and I know you was the greatest grandmother to Mason, I know he was a dream come true for you so glad you got to see him for a short while. Now its time for you to rest in the arms of the Lord, you will be missed
