“ Dana,
I can't express the pain that I feel right now. It's hard to accept the fact that I can no longer hug you when I need to. The memories of us have been circulating in my thoughts. The times that we've laughed together , the tears that we've cried together , the times that we've argued and the many fun times we had together. The way you would hand down your life experiences in the sisterly advice that you'd give me. I am so blessed to have had you as my big sister for 30 years.

You were so big on family and togetherness. There is such an emptiness without you. Words can't describe how loved you are and how you will forever be missed. I find comfort knowing that you are with the Lord and we will be together again one day , eternally. I love you sis!

“ I knew Dana as far back as grade school and I always loved her.
Always quick to smile Yet so easily embarrassed. She tried to teach me how to do the splits and leg kicks. An absolutely great person and an awful biology partner.I will always remember her and forever miss her. May God be with the family and friends of Dana.She will be missed...

No matter what kind of day she was having she always greeted you with a smile on her face. And had an infectious laugh! Dana loved Caitlin and loved her family. Dana is dancing the the angels now. My prayers are for God to wrap you all in His loving arms and give you comfort.

Beyond the depth of Dana's troubles and pain stands One who is understanding and all knowing. May God richly comfort and grant you the wisdom and strength to get through this time of sorrow now and in the years to come.
