“ On behalf of the DOC Education Division (Martha, Roy, Mary, Meredith and Sarah), Danice was a loving and helpful friend/colleague at the 127 Building. She set an example for others by her dedication to what was really important in life. Know that thoughts and prayers are with her loved ones during these trying times.

“ Danice worked in Capital Construction section for many years and left a permanent impression among us a loyal, loving and most sincere person in this world. She even worked from home to make sure that paperwork is done and bills are paid. I have never heard a word “no” from her on any work related activities. She was well respected among all of us. My thoughts and prayers are with family members. May God bless her soul.

“ I am so deeply saddened to hear of Danice's passing. She was a joy to speak with and she will always be a beautiful soul. She will be greatly missed by all those who had the joy to work with or even speak with her here in the KYDOC. Godspeed Danice, fly free with the angels. My thoughts and prayers are with everyone in her family and with all of her friends.
