“ To Danny Wayne,
I've thought of you today, as I have many times before. I wipe the tears away because I know you don't want me sad anymore. Its been a year since you've gone away, too long ago I wanted you to stay. I know that I am selfish for wanting you here with me, I just want to see the smile on your face. Now you're in a better place and at times I wish I was there with you. I miss the times we spent together. I miss you taking me fishing. The holidays are not the same without you. I just need you to protect me again. I wish you'd come home. I don't want to be alone without you. You've taught me so many things. You taught me how to be brave and strong. You showed me how to do so many things. And at times like this, crying and wishing you was here, I know I shouldn't. That's not what you would want. You are an amazing person Danny. I miss you more and more every day. I love you so very much and I will never forget all of the memories. You really had a heart of gold and I promise to be brave and strong now, like you've taught me to do. Just promise me that you will too.
