

Daniel K. Monroe

October 27, 1950 - June 16, 2026

A longtime fixture in Frankfort's business district, tailor Daniel (Dan) Kenneth Monroe (75) passed from this life on June 16, 2026 following a lengthy battle with cancer.

Born October 27, 1950, to Izetta Wilhoite Monroe and James Robert Monroe in Frankfort, KY. Dan is survived by an older brother, Donald Franklin Wachter (Cincinnati); two younger sisters, Arlene Monroe Johnson and Gala Monroe Lear both of Frankfort; a son, Thomas Moore and grandchildren, Destry Hawkins West, Jayden Hawkins, Hayley Moore and Rylee Moore. Surviving also is dear friend, Lisa Keene.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Izetta and Bob Monroe; his wife, Patricia Priddy Monroe; daughters, Tammy Hawkins and Linda Dickerson and son, Richard Moore.

A survivor of childhood polio, Dan was employed by Union Underwear Company then partnered with his mother in the tailoring business, Izetta Monroe's Tailor Shop. Along with private clients, the shop was affiliated with Jack Black of Suit City and Irv Gershman of Gershman's. Following Mrs. Monroe's passing, Dan owned and operated the tailor shop until this recent illness prevented him from working.
