Kimberly Ann, I am devastated and sorry for your loss of David Doyle. I am very appreciative of the kindness David always gave me. I was very surprised you choose a farmer as your life partner. I remember asking you what you saw in David. You said "He is a pretty good kisser". You also found out David was a good, hard working man, from a good family of Hoovers and Devers, life long friends of my family. Ashley was very luck to have David Doyle, his mother Maxine, and his father David in her life. As i was very luck to have you, Jenny, and Ashley in my life for over 19 years. LOL

I met Doyle in the sixth grade when we moved in "down the hill." I never would have imagined that the Devers would become a second family for me. Doyle was often fond of saying, "If it don't happen in Bald Knob, it just don't happen." As we grew up and our worlds expanded, he always kept that love for the land he farmed. I hate that I could not be there to say farewell. Know that there are thoughts and prayers to lift you up even from far away. Peace. Stephen Flynn

“ Kim, I'm so sorry for your loss. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. David was a great man and friend! I worked with him years ago at Centria and have many a fond memories of our time spent on the night shift there. I want to share particularly funny story. David came in my office at shift start one day saying he had an emergency with his cattle and had to leave. I asked him what was wrong, he said he wasn't sure but they were staggering around and he had several that were down. We spoke on the phone the next day and he was waiting on the results of the autopsy from the one that had died. Now, keep in mind how resourceful David was, he had been getting the old bread from the breadstore on 127 and feeding it to his cattle. Well, the vet called him to tell him his cow died from alcohol poisoning! The bread he had been feeding them fermented in their stomachs! It was sad for the one's he lost but we had a lot of laughs about it also. Especially since he was the president of the Franklin County Cattlemens Association! He will never be forgotten ❤️!

“ A kind, fine man and good neighbor. What a terrible loss! Once as a youngster watching Hoover's place while Hoover's were away, he called to say that a calf had broken a leg and needed to be "put down." Could I help? "Dole" just couldn't do it. That's how kind a person he was by nature.

“ Doyle was such a kind hearted man. My husband and I got to know him through his work at the stockyards. As a first time farmer, Doyle took time out of his day to meet with my husband and give him farming advice. We made a friend that very day. Kim, Words, no matter how kind, can't mend your heartache. However, those who care for you pray for God's strength during this very difficult time.
