“ My Dear Sweet Brother,

Life was definitely cut short for you here on earth. With you being the baby of the family I did not expect you to be the first one of us to go. I think you just wanted to beat me by getting to Heaven first. You and I had so many conversations about God and our faith and how we leaned on Him constantly for absolutely everything. We recently talked about the crazy world and all the struggles and hurt here on earth and how we were ready to get to the better life that God had planned for us. I am just glad you are at peace now and will never ever have another struggle. Your love for Andrea, Dylan, and Mackenzie was a love that most families can only long for. You were truly the best dad I have ever known. Your children will never forget how loving and caring you were. Thanks for being so wonderful to them and most of all teaching them about God. I hope to see you soon but until I get there just remember I love you so much! You will truly be missed!

*Love,
Vickie*
