

Deborah Thurman

July 16, 1954 - April 25, 2019

Frankfort – Celebration of Life services for Deborah Ellen Thurman, age 64, will be held at Choateville Christian Church on Saturday, May 18, 2019, at 6:00 p.m. with Rev. Mike Napier officiating.

Mrs. Thurman passed away at home Thursday, April 25, 2019. She was born in Chester, Pennsylvania on July 16, 1954. Deborah was united in marriage to Kenneth Thurman for 47 years. She retired from Union Underwear in 1993, began another career with Franklin County Home Health and then enjoyed a second retirement from Franklin County Public Schools. Deborah's hobbies included gardening, fishing, lying by the pool, shooting pool, spending time with friends and being on the beach. She was a faithful member of Choateville Christian Church.

In addition to her loving husband, Kenneth, she leaves behind her daughter, Crystal Thurman Wilburn-Watkins (Trevor); father, David Weber (Linda); brothers, Calvin James "Jim" Covany (Alice), Donnie Weber (Carolyn) and Andrew Weber (Michelle). Deborah was the beloved "Nanny" of her grandchildren, Jessica Tate (Trevor) and Taylor Grace Wilburn and great grandchild, Brantley Tate. She was also blessed with multiple nieces and nephews.

Deborah was preceded in death by her mother Shirley Ann Weber and Calvin

James Covany, Sr.

In lieu of flowers, expressions of sympathy in Deborah's memory are suggested to Bluegrass Hospice Care.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

“ Debbie ALWAYS had a smile, which was purely contagious as was her laugh! She so loved her family and was undoubtedly their hero. May you hold the memories close and help each other through the grief, and may you always feel the comfort of the angel watching over you. RIP Deb ~ you certainly will be missed!
