“ I met Junia and Dee when I was a missionary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. They adopted me and I have loved them ever since then. They are the very best people and I am so honored to know them. I met her family and they are one of the kindest families. They love each other so much. Dee made me laugh until I cried. Thanks for the washboard abs Dee! I miss her and Junia so much and can't wait to see them again! Families are Forever. Sincerely, Christine Williams

“ Fondest memories of Dee as my traveling roommate and "big sister." She loved deeply, shared wholeheartedly, and could tell a lie so convincingly you might really go outside to see if the sky is falling. How could you not love somebody like that?

Take comfort family. She is okay now.
